B) SELECTION

1. From the films received before the deadline, the Milano Film Festival selection committee will choose the titles that will take part at the twenty-fourth edition of the International Short Film Competition.

2. The official list of the films participating to the competitions will be published on the website www.milanofilmfestival.it before the start of the festival, during the Official Press Conference. All the Applicants will receive a notification containing the Official Selection via e-mail by the end of September, 2019.

3. The competing Applicants, filmmakers and/or producers, will be invited to take part in MFN Archive Project (D) starting from October, 2019.

4. The films will be screened, if possible, in the screening format declared in the submission form, subtitled both in English and Italian.

For every film not in English language, the competing Applicant, filmmakers and/or producers must give to Milano Film Festival a screen copy with English subtitles. Every competing Applicant must send, also, the English dialogue list.

5. The filmmakers and/or producers undertake to send:

- By June 28th, 2019 via e-mail: the post production script and a detailed technical sheet including a synopsis, a bio-filmography of the filmmaker, photographic material and any other information requested by the Milano Film Festival during the compilation of the catalogue.

- By August 5th, 2019: a Bluray disk or H264 file as backup copy of the film with English subtitles if the film is not in English language.

This copy will be filed in the Festival's archive for security and promotional reasons - it will be screened at the festival in emergency cases, and, after the Festival, in the events of a screening of the entire Milano Film Festival artistic program in another city.

- Also by August 5th, 2019: a copy of the film in the screening format declared in the submission form, with English subtitles (except for the English language films).

All the film's copies, both for backup and projection, must have the same time-code to grant a correct subtitling.

- Press kit containing materials of the film to be handed over to journalists and to be distributed in the Festival area for audience and film directors during the event.

6. The shipping cost for returning the screening copies will be covered by Milano Film Festival. Milano Film Festival accepts no responsibility in the event of loss of film copies after the shipping.

7. The directors and/or producers of the films selected authorize the screening of their film during the Milano Film Festival and the diffusion (tv, web) of trailers for the promotion of the event (up to 50 seconds for short films; up to 3 minutes for feature films).

8. The directors (and/or other members of the crew) of the selected film will be invited to attend the Festival and a free accreditation card will be given to each of them. The Milano Film Festival will contribute to the travel and accommodation expenses according to its means.
